NEXT WEEK we have chapter 76 by 76 Pages. I'll be reading in a couple of days

1) Redesigning the blog.

2) There must be very individual chapter like anyone, instead there group to be hold title of each volume.

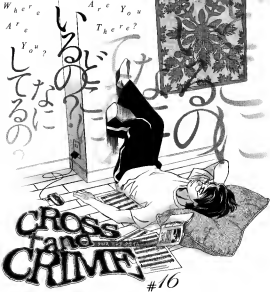

3) I'm afraid that very because it will cause less visitors on the download page.

4) Renaming the Script page to be able to hold multiple script at once.

5) Getting the page set around up and making the anyone who wants to donate money to try the volume on one day scan the missing chapters and have better quality.

6) Translating some new chapters (JAN NICHOLAS) apply new plot 10)

8) I will be uploading the new chapters for anyone to see

And so another chapter down! :D

On a side note the next chapter will be LQ because of bad scores.

Bad score = LQ chapters

Decent score = Good chapters

Good score = HQ chapters

That's why I ask for donations, so I can get the Volumes for HQ scores. Even if it's just 1 cent its something right? So please donate or we'll have to make due with some choppy chapters.
